Arches LIVE '11

20th September - 1st October

Every September each nook and cranny of the building comes alive with the energy of the Arches LIVE festival: a season of new work by Scotland's most exciting performance makers.

ex·per·i·ment noun A trial or special observation, made to confirm or disprove something doubtful; an act or operation undertaken in order to discover some unknown principle or effect, or to test, establish, or illustrate some suggested or known truth

The festival celebrates the unknown, offering emergent artists the opportunity to try out fresh ideas and take risks.

Arches LIVE is best treated as a dynamic carnival with the possibility of several unique experiences in one night. The work is hugely varied - from the challenging political interventions of Rosana Cade & Laurie Brown and Gary Gardiner to physical and visual storytelling from Ross MacKay and Room2Manouvre to the musical comedy of The Kilty Brothers.

There are thirty events over two weeks, including the much anticipated return of Peter McMaster & Nic Green and Ramesh Meyyappan's follow-up to his hit show Snails & Ketchup. We are delighted to host a rehearsed reading from Stef Smith, the writer of the multi-award-winning Roadkill, and Kieran Hurley's exploration into the nature of the power of gathered youth could not be any more pertinent. In several performances intervention from you, the audience, is required to complete the action...

This is an opportunity to catch an early glimpse of the artists who will shape the future of Scottish theatre.

Jackie Wylie, Arches Artistic Director

Play (Station)

Tue 20th - Wed 21st September
Book a slot from 6.45pm | B3 | £3/£2

This is your new favourite place.

Play [Station] is an interactive installation where the audience and artist share time together through the medium of computer games. Part museum, part cosy sitting room, the audience are invited into a secluded den on the edge of the festival where they can connect, collaborate and play.

Thom Scullion is a performance maker based in Glasgow. He started playing games at the age of seven. His life changed in 1999 when he played Metal Gear Solid for the first time.

The Bystander Effect

Tue 20th - Sat 24th Sept (not 22nd)
6.45pm onwards | B2 | £3/£2

In a deep, dark place a collusion of audience members will be committing a foul deed. A combination of art and psychology, The Bystander Effect will test the individual's sense of free will against a desire to fit in with those around them. You are invited to join this crowd. You may find yourself doing something you wouldn't want to.

"...a small unwholesome crowd amassed in the basement to cheer..."

Fall of a Window Cleaner

Tue 20th September
7pm and 8.05pm | 12 mins | Arch 2 | £3/£2

In cinema's early days, going to a silent movie was like going to a show: often a small orchestra would perform, building up suspense. Composer and filmmaker Julien Lonchamp aims to recapture this very excitement with the Apostrophe Ensemble.

Shot in the Arches, Fall of a Window Cleaner depicts the inner journey of a character as he falls down a building and somehow gets sucked into it. Conducted by Derek Williams, the Apostrophe Ensemble will perform the film soundtrack live with the film projected as a backdrop.

Beats (early development)

Tue 20th + Wed 21st September
7.30pm | 30 mins | Practice Room | £7/£5

"How can the government stop young people having a good time? Fight this bollocks." The Prodigy

In 1994 the Criminal Justice Act effectively outlawed raves, banning public gatherings around amplified music characterised by "the emission of a succession of repetitive beats". In 2011 the coalition government is restricting young people through demonising political protest.

This early development of ideas by Kieran Hurley explores hedonism, activism and the irresistible power of gathered youth. Expect traditional storytelling, some experiments with audio equipment and techno. Lots of techno.

The Fire Burns and Burns

Tue 20th + Wed 21st September
7.30pm | 45 mins | Arch 6 | £7/£5

*When we say we are hopeful for the future,
And that life follows death follows life,
I tell you that the fire burns and burns,
Uninhibited.
And in that future,
We exist as each other,
Aware of where we are at all times,
True to ourselves and present in our freedoms.
We will feel the heat.*

The Fire Burns and Burns is a gentle, immersive and intimate exploration of 'live' and 'aliveness'. It is in recognition of the fire that burns throughout every living being. We will focus on the nature and existence of pure energy and ask: can the body, like fire, be uninhibited?

Nichola Scrutton

Songs for a Stranger

Tue 20th + Wed 21st September
8.30pm | 25 mins | Dark Space | £7/£5

Everyone feels like a stranger sometimes - when travelling somewhere new; returning home; confronting solitude. Some feel estranged in close intimacy; others find connection through anonymity.

Traditionally, song has transformed these subjective feelings into universal experience. In this work, song itself becomes a subject of exploration. Two performers, Nichola Scrutton (sound artist/vocalist) and Céline Hänni (vocalist), improvise with fragments of text and extended techniques creating a series of atmospheric states in an electroacoustic sound world.

Backbone & Navel #3

Tue 20th + Wed 21st September
9.15pm | 45 mins | Studio | £7/£5

I haven't always been alone. I must have been with someone. Maybe even inside someone since I have a navel in the middle of my belly visible to the naked eye.

Backbone & Navel #3 is inspired by feminist philosopher Helene Cixous, re-imagining and re-presenting her ideas, tapping into a resurgence of debate about what it means to be a woman today. Cixous' writing on Genesis and the fall of Eve forms the backdrop to this exploration of our cultural ecology: of forests, heroes and the female body. Intimate, honest, and unflinching, the show attempts to reclaim the female identity.

Making Routes Launch

Fri 23rd September
2.30pm | 3 hours | Playroom | FREE

Join David Overend, Nic Green, Adrian Howells, Phil Smith (Wrights & Sites) and Eleanor Harrison (Pointed Arrow) for an afternoon of talks, presentations and discussions about the relationship between performance and journeys. Making Routes is a new network of artists and researchers and this launch event opens up the project to new contributors and possibilities.

We're at the beginning, we don't know quite where we'll end up, and we want you to help determine what direction we go in...

Supported by the Arches & University of the West of Scotland

Critical Confessions

Tue 20th, Fri 23rd + Tue 27th Sept
Book a slot from 6.45pm | Foyer | £3/£2

Battling against low self-esteem, financial despair and the disgust of the theatre community, Mr Criticulous invites you to learn the vile art of Performance Criticism. Join him in his specially prepared chamber of discernment to share your anonymous opinions, and hear his personal philosophy of better criticism through self-hatred.

Throughout Arches LIVE, Criticulous will be creating bespoke art works that wobble precariously on the razor's edge of art and journalism: join him to review, receive and repent of those uncomfortable feelings that seduce the most innocent of audiences.

Putting Words in My Mouth

Fri 23rd + Sat 24th September
7pm | 40 mins | Practice Room | £7/£5

Food, family and memory: three concepts that are all connected. Connected around the dinner table, in the back garden, in the park with friends and at every family occasion. What happens if we change our eating habits? Does this change our memories? Is forgetting certain tastes a positive loss we should embrace?

As we delve into the ethics of our decisions about food, we explore what it means to give up certain foods and how we might have given up some memories on the way.

A play exploring why we eat what we eat, and how this shapes us. Bring your tastebuds.

Risking Enchantment

Go Now

Fri 23rd + Sat 24th September
7pm | 45 mins | B3 | £7/£5

A girl and her ghost play games of love and loss in a lonely city. Haunted buildings; haunted bodies; a bedtime story told without expectation of waking.

"How long have you been here? Who let you in? What's that smell?"

Go Now is a disturbing and beautiful new play – a short, sharp exploration of self that dances across boundaries and thrills with its intimacy and invention.

"What's the word for that? I've forgotten. How did it feel? I can't remember. Tell me a story."

Sita Pieraccini

Bird

Fri 23rd + Sat 24th September
8.20pm | 25 mins | Arch 6 | £7/£5

Bird is the story of a wild, feral child who befriends an avian fellow in flight. Their relationship is halted by the bird's abrupt departure. With only a patch of soil to call her own, the girl is left in solitude once again.

With no dialogue, this solo performance with elements of clown, mime and birdsong looks at the life of one individual, struggling with their emotions and desires for companionship.

Smokies

Fri 23rd + Sat 24th September
9pm | 40 mins | Studio | £7/£5

Adapted from Mick Jackson's The Pearce Sisters, Smokies is a tasty tale of two lonely old spinsters making a living by catching and smoking fish. Unfortunately neither has much luck capturing the hearts of the sailors and fishermen who find themselves washed up on the sisters' remote shore. Unable to escape their romantic pursuit, the reluctant suitors come to a rather gruesome demise.

A Glasgow-based Singaporean, Ramesh is a multi-faceted theatre practitioner whose performances mix visual and physical theatre with circus techniques.

Supported by Creative Scotland, National Theatre of Scotland & The Arches.

Jamais Vu

Sat 24th September
3pm | 1 hour | Playroom | £4/£3

'Beautiful, brilliant, powerful...'
The Scotsman on RoadKill

Cassie can't wash the smell of petrol out of her hair, there is grit trapped underneath her fingernails and she just isn't sure she is ready to be a mother. Inspired by real events, Jamais Vu follows one woman's journey as she tries to stop the future that only she can see.

Jamais Vu is a rehearsed reading written and directed by award-winning writer Stef Smith (RoadKill). The script has been developed with the Playwrights' Studio Scotland.

Humours (Infection)

Tue 27th September
From 6.30pm | Foyer | Free

Poetic actions for an amorphous object.

Humours (Infection) is an intervention/installation in which a mass of oddly shaped sculptures take over the Arches foyer. You are invited to watch them grow and change and interact with them as you please.

Thomas McCulloch is a performance artist whose poetic and theoretical work manipulates the fixed connotations we have of objects to create new meanings. He believes in making unique, improvised and temporary work for one-off audiences.

Confessional

Tue 27th + Wed 28th September
6.45pm onwards | Foyer | Free

"Bless me father, for I have sinned. It has been three months since my last confession..."

As a piece of active research, two queer artists have been attending confession in different churches across Glasgow. They confessed their active desire for members of the same sex. This installation is a document of what happened.

Phoenix

Tue 27th + Wed 28th September
7-7.15pm + 9.45-10pm | Practice Rm | £7/£5

We've left a lot behind; we've sold them, dumped them, burnt them, torn them up and fed them to the rat, stamped them out and sweated them through our pores. We had to - it was time to move on.

What's left, once the thick layers of skin we've been growing for 117 years between us have all been peeled back? If you could start again, build a new world from scratch, where would you begin?

YOWZA! are a Glasgow-based company who try not to fear the unknown and seek to discover positive methods for change.

I Don't Want To Talk About It

Tue 27th + Wed 28th September
7pm 25 mins | B2 | £7/£5

For many years Rachel Jury wanted to develop a solo autobiographical performance. Over time this performance has, in her mind, taken many different forms from dance to drag king to storytelling. Only there has always been one thing stopping her – she doesn't want to talk about it.

I Don't Want to Talk About It is a cross art-form, solo performance mixing music, dance, voice over, projection and dialogue investigating the complex interplay of politics, social and cultural norms and personal story. It is a show of repeated, differing and conflicted beginnings...

The Skinny on Watch IT/Such a Bloke

Success, on some level, is important to everyone... but at what cost? Based on the game of squash, and told through dance and theatre, this new work explores what drives us towards our goals and what we lose during this journey.

Taking place within a rudimentary squash court, the performance acts as a metaphor for competitiveness. How do we cope with the balancing act we perform to keep our lives in order? Do we follow the rules... or can we break them?

Julia Scott

Parallel

Tue 27th + Wed 28th September
7.45pm | 25 mins | Dark Space | £7/£5

GSA graduate Julia Scott's work is concerned with self, desire, fear, boundaries and perceived freedom. Influenced by 1960s conceptual artist Yves Klein amongst others, her previous work has involved her leading a group of men down a Glasgow street wearing only guitars and platforms, and being suspended naked from three gold silks in a dark green tunnel surrounded by drone.

For Arches LIVE, she is developing a bold mixed media performance with drummer and performer Laurie Pitt. Both artists are part of Glasgow Open School.

Santa: A Very Merry Businessman

Tue 27th + Wed 28th September
8.45pm | 50 mins | Studio | £7/£5

Dear Santa,
*I have been deeply concerned over the last few years in the lack of variety in your gifts. Last year my 6-year-old daughter received three multi-coloured "f**k me" high heels and my son yet another toy gun. I'm sure your decision to stop producing gifts in your workshop is based on sound financial planning, but where is the Christmas spirit? Awaiting your response with excitement and anticipation... Friday 30th Sept + Sat 1st Oct
7pm (30th) 7.15pm (1st)
30 mins | Arch 6 | £7/£5

A black pantomime splatter opera; a bouffon rumpus through a land ravaged by plague and poverty, where celebrity worship and obedient consumerism are the whole of the law.

Dark myth and TV culture collide in a savage romp indicting snivelling wretches in filth and squalor clamouring to be the 10th lucky caller; rapsallions and roustabouts peering out of shadows hoping for a glimpse of fairytale princesses or adorned idols.

It's the night of the big ball and the Ratcatcher wasn't invited; were you?

Gideon and the Woodentoppers

Fri 30th Sept + Sat 1st Oct
7.45pm (30th) 8pm (1st)
50 mins | Practice Rm | £7/£5

An anti-musical comedy from the award-winning Kielty Brothers: as the WoodenToppers near the end of their gruelling tour, tensions between the actors reach their limits and Michael is getting anxious. Is there any truth to the legend of Gideon - a spiritual preacher who wanders the Scottish Borders turning non-believers into King James Bibles?

Last Stand

Fri 30th Sept + Sat 1st October

7.45pm (30th) 8pm (1st) | 1 hr | Play Rm | £7/£5

Thomas Hobbins has been thinking about volcanoes and how they can lie dormant, hidden away waiting to erupt.

He's realised how powerful they are and is wondering how much power he has. Is it natural to wonder this? How much does he want control?

He is exploring ways in which we desire power and how it can dictate who we are.

Last Stand is a new solo performance exploring the deeper, sinister human desire for power. Where does this hunger come from and can it be stopped?

The Medium

Fri 30th Sept + Sat 1st Oct

9pm (30th) 9.15pm (1st) | 45 mins | Studio | £7/£5

Amongst the shadows and the smoke of the big cities, ghosts are waiting. Abraham Lincoln, Charles Dickens and Queen Victoria herself have been known to join hands with kindred spirits and search for lost souls. But with charlatans lurking around every corner, how can you be sure what's real and what's an illusion? A young medium plunges the depths of his own conscience in a tale where death is only the beginning.

Arches LIVE Panel Discussion

Sat 1st October

3pm | 1 hr 45 mins | FREE

How is the current economic climate affecting artistic output in the UK? Are there noticeable aesthetic shifts occurring? Does the term 'DIY' risk excusing the lack of real support for artists or does it represent an oppositional, energetic potential? What is the role of artists in challenging the political choices that are currently being made? How do cuts in funding impact on the capability of artists to fulfil this function?

David Hughes Dance presents

LAST ORDERS

Fri 7th Oct | 7.30pm | £11/£8

You are invited to an endless party, an ecstatic celebration teetering on the brink of nightmare...

Inspired by the legendary 16th century Scottish cannibal Sawney Bean, David Hughes Dance once again joins forces with Al Seed (Conflux, The Fooligan) to lead you on a hallucinatory journey down the rabbit-hole, through subterranean caves, magic doors and derelict nightclubs into a world where nothing is quite what it seems.

An enthralling new piece of dance-theatre from two of the hottest names in Scottish dance, Last Orders made its debut at this year's Edinburgh Fringe. Deliciously dark and visually sumptuous, this is the follow-up to 2009's award-winning The Red Room, merging Seed's stunning choreography with Hughes' eye for extremity and beauty to create a haunting spectacle.

"Fast-moving, dramatic, performed with demonic energy and sly polish – this is a triumph for all concerned – it has to tour."

THE BEST OF JONNY WOO

Sat 22nd Oct | 7.30pm | £9/£7

Jonny Woo is arguably the queen of London's alternative drag scene. From Gay Bingo to Tranny Talent Night, Woo has stamped his mark across London and New York as a host, compere, DJ and outrageous performer over the past decade. Lauded by New York performance artist Taylor Mac ("I saw Jonny Woo and I realised that drag can be anything you want it to be"), his hilarious pop-culture parodies - such as Stark Dallas Naked and Night of a Thousand Jay Astons - have rocketed him to the ranks of one of the most outrageous, boldest alternative performance artists in the UK.

His Best Of show sees him storming through a cavalcade of his favourite characters, mixing jubilant queer anthems with twisted storytelling and moments of downright poetic brilliance.

Glasgay! presents Company Chordelia:

CABARET CHORDELIA

Tue 8th – Thu 10th Nov | 7.30pm | £9/£7

Putting their trademark modern stamp on live cabaret, Company Chordelia present an evening of song and dance, sensuality and sumptuousness.

Inspired by 1930s Berlin cabaret which “seeks to reflect and observe as well as entertain”, Cabaret Chordelia is an ambitious, intelligent interpretation of the genre, adding intellect, humour and poise, morphing popular entertainment into something resembling high art.

Under the direction of Kally Lloyd-Jones, traditional touches intermingle with modern; alongside the high leg kicks and Minnelli-esque vamping, classical dance sequences are infused with 21st Century twitches, and old cabaret songs sit side-by-side with vacuous pop and darker moments of emotional depth.

Company Chordelia (Red Shoes, Miranda, Kurt Weill: The Seven Deadly Sins) is a Scottish dance-theatre company taking a forward-thinking approach to traditional forms.

“Certainly cool, undoubtedly intelligent, Cabaret Chordelia is another wry entry into the company’s catalogue.” THE SKINNY

BEACONS

Mon 24th Oct | 7.30pm | £7/£5

A workshop will be on offer in conjunction with this performance – see Arches website for details.

Created at the Experimental Media and Performing Arts Center in New York, Beacons is the latest piece from Yvon Bonenfant, a vocal artist and performer committed to exploring the range and power of the human voice.

His astonishing voice forms the core of the show. Singing live alongside layers of recorded and processed voice, his vocals are in turns sweet, startling, soothing, ethereally beautiful and gutturally emotional. As they mingle with floating video scenes of flashing motorway lights and glowing antennae, the audience enters a surprising new landscape which is actually built upon heartfelt, profoundly human experiences.

Singing of car accidents, motorway roadworks, ambulances, airports and lighthouses, Beacons is an immersive audio-visual journey through the flashing warning lights which make up the nocturnal landscape of our industrialised world.

Based in the UK since 2002, his work has been seen at diverse venues worldwide, from the Tate Modern in London and the Centre Pompidou in Paris to New York's MIX Queer Film and Audio Festival.

MARY ANNE KRELL, THE WOOSTER GROUP

Ballet Lorent presents

la nuit intime

Mon 14th Nov | 7.30pm | £12/£9

Drink, relax and lose yourself in the dance as the evening unfolds around you

More immersive installation than dance piece, la nuit intime is an homage to the night. Set in nightclubs and other nocturnal haunts, this is an underground world where boundaries dissolve and fantasies are made flesh. Performers flow between the audience as the spectacle washes over them; witnessing incredible physicality, vulnerability and polysexual eroticism from an intimate perspective, no two people will have the same experience.

The pick-and-mix selection of dance styles - from ballet to roller-skating, pole-dancing and east-European folklore - is tenderly echoed in the carefully chosen, eclectic soundtrack and exquisite costumes. Prepare yourself for one of the most sensuous, otherworldly experiences possible.

Founded in 1993 by award-winning choreographer Liv Lorent, balletLORENT's productions consistently sell out internationally and stun dance veterans and virgins alike.

Lisa Nicoll:

HOME RUN

Tue 1st – Wed 2nd Nov | 7.30pm | £7/£5

Lucy sits and waits for her Dad to pick her up. She's been away from it all for six months. Now she's going back to where it all began.

Home Run is a one-woman play about moving forward and letting go. Written and performed by Scottish playwright and actress Lisa Nicoll (Acceptance, Daisies), her bold, un-clichéd narrative captures the everyday balance between humour and hard hitting emotional conflict.

Funded by the Scottish Drugs Recovery Consortium.

Q&A with the director after performance on 1st.

CREATIVE LEARNING

at the Arches:

This year has been a whirlwind of filming and drama, pop songs and nostalgia. Working with over 55s in Govanhill and Merrylee, we're delighted to have completed our film about the Govanhill baths, and life in the area. We also saw the first inspiring performance from participants at HMP Cornton Vale, who we have been working with every week in partnership with The Royal Conservatoire of Scotland.

September sees the start of Adrian Howells' time here as Artist in Residence. As well as collaborating with a range of artists here at The Arches, he'll be working with Sense Scotland at TouchBase with artists with learning disabilities. Here he will develop his own practice by collaborating with the TouchBase arts team, as well as working with professionals from a variety of practice based and academic backgrounds.

Dudendance presents:

THIS SIDE OF PARADISE

Wed 19th - Thu 20th Oct | 7.30pm | £5/£3

Inspired by the dysfunctional world of 1940s film noir, Dudendance and a young cast recreate James Ellroy's haunting depiction of "a nightmare of flawed souls with big dreams" using improvisation, human puppetry and body morphing in this new work-in-progress.

This is an opportunity to see the work in its raw form, with an aftershow discussion where feedback will be encouraged.

Dudendance are an experimental theatre company blending striking physical theatre with dance and cinematic elements.

THE ARCHES

COMMUNITY CHOIR

Thursdays | 7pm | £3

In the words of one of the choir members:

"Do-do-do you love to sing? Tired of being alone? Then turn up on a Thursday night and harmonise with Beyonce's T in the Park support act (kind of)! If you can't read music, don't worry, baby – our fabulous choir leaders teach their arrangements by ear, from Eurythmics and Lily Allen to Fleet Foxes and Elbow. We may live in a material world, but it's a bargain at only £3.00."

Bungo Fest

Sat 8th Oct | 11am-8pm | FREE | various venues

The Arches and Strathbungo Society team up to present a one-day festival of micro-performances in the bars, cafes, restaurants and shops around Strathbungo, featuring roving and static pieces from a diverse range of local Southside artists.

Love Club: Day Of The Dead

Tue 1st Nov | 8pm-10pm | £4

Markus Makavellian hosts another popular evening of music, spoken word, tea, cake and knitting, this time paying tribute to the yearly Mexican mourning ritual. Acts include The Creative Martyrs and Julia & The Doogans.

Visual Art

The Arches foyer space will be home to various exhibitions this autumn, including Terraplanes by Rowena Comrie. The hanging aircraft sculptures form a dramatic critical comment on the contemporary experience of terror. Also look out for a new, beautiful piece of graffiti art by Matthew Bloomer on the wall outside the Cafe Bar windows, specially commissioned for Death Disco Trans Europe Expressway.

It's Christmas, but it's hard to celebrate with no cards, tree, presents or food. If only Esmerelda the chicken would agree to laying an egg. It could be a scrambled Christmas dinner, or fried, or even boiled... but Esmerelda just won't be persuaded, unless she hears her favourite story...

Join us this Christmas for this magical and hilarious production of Rudolf.

With only the bits from their tiny house, huge imaginations and the strongest sense of the ridiculous, two unlikely storytellers attempt to tell the tale of brave Rudolf, the reindeer with dreams, who just doesn't "nose" why he doesn't fit in.

The perfect festive treat for audiences young and old, Rudolf was first produced in 2008 for Stirling's MacRobert Arts Centre and was nominated for a CATS award for Best Show for Children & Young People.

Created by Andy Manley, Herald Angel and Fringe First award winner 2010 for his sellout children's production White.

AFRICA HITECH

+ Rudi Zygodlo (Planet Mu)

Fri 9th Sept | 8pm | £7 adv | 18+

One of Warp's freshest signings, Africa Hitech does what it says on the tin: music of black origin gone futuristic. Their debut album 93 Million Miles fuses garage, ragga, dancehall and dubstep with acid basslines straight from Chicago and 4/4 rhythms from Detroit. Support comes from much-hyped Glasgow-Berlin producer Rudi Zygodlo.

DF CONCERTS PRESENTS

I'M FROM BARCELONA

Wed 17th Sept | 7pm | £12 adv | 18+

Boasting an impressive 29 members, indie pop collective I'm From Barcelona are, in fact, from Sweden. Led by Emanuel Lundgren, and wielding an eclectic range of instruments from trumpets to kazoos to accordions, the band released Forever Young, their fourth album of melodic, catchy pop songs, earlier this year.

TRIPLE G PRESENTS

GYM CLASS HEROES

Tue 4th Oct | 7pm | £12.50 adv | 14+
(Under 16s must be with an 18+ adult)

Back with new single Stereo Hearts, urban hip-pop act Gym Class Heroes rocketed to mainstream consciousness in 2006 with huge hit Cupid's Chokehold. Collaborations with diverse artists – from Busta Rhymes to Hall & Oates' Daryl Hall – as well as some eclectic influences have secured their reputation as a truly original act.

BIG TALK

Sat 24th Sep | 8pm | £12.50 adv | 14+
(Under 16s must be with an 18+ adult)

The new project from Ronnie Vannucci Jr (The Killers) and Taylor Milne (Expert on October), who released their self titled debut album in July - a gleaming, feel-good thwack of anthemic electro-rock jams, throwing more than a nod to ex-bandmate Brandon Flowers' suave vocals and sense of 80s rock'n'roll fun.

BROOKE FRASER

Tue 11th Oct | 7pm | £15 adv | 14+
(Under 16s must be with an 18+ adult)

Signing a deal with Sony at the tender age of 17, multi-platinum-selling alt-pop singer Brooke Fraser is best known for her international radio hit Something In The Water. Mixing warm folk and pop with confessional, heartfelt lyrics, the New Zealand star has been likened to Norah Jones and Joni Mitchell.

MUSIC IN PROGRESS & THE GIG CARTEL PRESENT

MOSTLY AUTUMN & IT BITES

Sun 16th Oct | 7pm | £20 adv | 18+

Prolific prog-folk act Mostly Autumn team up with 80s prog-pop crossovers It Bites for a full UK tour. Fronted by Olivia Sparnenn, the 70s-inspired group are a powerful force to behold live, presenting their Genesis and Pink Floyd-influenced rock from behind a wall of sound.

ONE INCH BADGE PRESENTS

APPARAT (4 PIECE BAND) LIVE

Wed 19th Oct | 7.30pm | £13.50 adv | 18+

The Berlin-based producer embarks on his first full-scale tour as Apparat, recreating his ambient, techno-driven electronica with a live band. Moving to Berlin in 1997, Sascha Ring was soon collaborating with BPitch founder Ellen Allien and, as one third of Moderat with Modeselektor, quickly becoming known as one of the best electronic live acts around. Apparat's fourth album The Devil's Walk, released earlier this year, followed a stunning and highly-rated DJ Kicks compilation, revealing Ring's talent at both creating and curating elegiac, dark clouds of emotional electronica.

TIDAL SHIFT PRESENTS

DOOM

Thu 3rd Nov | 7.30pm | £19.50 adv | 18+

Following his first ever UK tour last year, hip hop's most monikered man returns to the Arches after delighting fans with the unveiling of new single Victory Laps, the result of his legendarily ill-fated project with Ghostface Killah. Released in September, it features his trademark quick-as-lightning lyrics, effortless flow, and obsessive production skills.

THE ARCHES & MIXED BUSINESS PRESENT

FOREIGN BEGGARS & LAZER SWORD

Fri 28th Oct | 7.30pm | £9 adv | 18+

Foreign Beggars are on a mission: to change the face of UK hip hop. Blending rap sensibilities with dubstep rumble, crunching electro and London-fuelled grime, their recent collaborations with Plastician, Noisia, Skrillex and Flux Pavillion seem to be bringing them more success each time; their massive Pharoahe Monch-sampling single Badman Riddim (Jump) saturated dancefloors this summer after being immediately championed by Annie Mac, Zane Lowe and Toddla T. With a new single due out on Modeselektor's label, hip-tronica duo Lazer Sword gained underground recognition for their track Koopa Boss Mode, as well as the Numbers-released Golden Handshake EP.

WIRE +Talk Normal

Fri 18th Nov | 7pm | £15 adv | 18+

Endlessly restless and constantly risk-taking, Wire came to prominence during the UK punk revolution and went on to become one of the most important bands of the past four decades, notably influencing the post-punk revival of the early 00s. Latest album Red Barked Tree was released this year to rapturous acclaim.

LITTLE DRAGON

Wed 30th Nov | 7pm | £12.50 adv | 18+

Championed on BBC 6 Music for recent singles NightLight and Ritual Union, Swedish four-piece Little Dragon have been making quirky, danceable pop-tronica since 2007, winning fans with their pensive, dreamy debut track Twice. Singer Yukimi Nagono currently provides the compelling vocals on Wildfire, the new track from dubstep producer SBTRKT.

THE ARCHES PRESENTS

DJ FRESH (LIVE)

Wed 23rd Nov | 7pm | £12.50 adv | 14+
(under 16s must be with an adult aged 18+)

One of the most innovative producers to hit the mainstream, the hype has already begun for the first ever live show from DnB/dubstep crossover DJ Fresh – the London DJ, producer and one quarter of DnB collective Bad Company. The first of his kind to secure the top spot, he stormed to No.1 this summer with Louder, the huge hit featuring Kosheen's Sian Evans. As with 2010 hits Hypercaine, Kryptonite and Gold Dust, it retained Fresh's furious, high-BPM sound as first championed on Bad Company's revered underground hit The Nine. Don't miss this, the first date on his first ever live tour.

DEATH DISCO

Sat 17th Sep | 10pm-4am | £14/£7 adv
Sat 15th Oct | 11pm-3am | £14/£7 adv

Hello darkness my old friend... Saying farewell to long, light nights in the most spectacular way possible, September's huge trans-European line-up of Lindstrom, Prins Thomas, Factory Floor, Feadz, Retro/Grade and many more sets to remind you why you liked being indoors in the first place. Spilling out of the Arches and across into SWG3, with a disco shuttle bus punting you between the two, this is the unofficial closing party for the transient Glasgow summer. In October gender-bashing electro-trash legend Peaches (DJ set) takes to the stage, electrifying the autumnal gloom with help from Justus Kohncke and some hi-NRG antics from out-there italo bear-queen Hard Ton.

Dare to be different...

Seeking a unique, alternative and vibrant space for your next event? Nestled in atmospheric Grade A-listed Victorian vaults, the Arches is the ideal solution. The venue can be transformed to hold up to 700 for a gala banquet or 2,000 for a drinks reception or product launch. Why not create a more intimate event for 100-200 people for a client dinner, ceilidh or wedding reception?

Our highly experienced in-house technical team and event planners can theme each event to suit your requirements. The venue is also ideal for small conferences looking for an alternative to hotels. Based in a city centre location and only a ten minute walk to the SECC and all the main city centre hotels, we are the perfect choice!
